tionment Bills Necessities, Says Allison.

OTHER MATTERS CAN WAIT.

Ship Subsidy and Isthmian Canal Will Come Up, but He Expects No Legislation at This Session.

14th St. and Pennsylvania Ave. Washington, Nov. 20.-Senator Allison of Iowa, who arrived in Washington to-day from the West, says that three matters of legislation must pass the coming session of Congress, and that all others will be made

"These are the appropriation bills, an ermy reorganization bill and a reapportionment bill," said Mr. Allison, "All other natters are subsidiary and can, if necessary, be laid aside until later. The three measures enumerated, however, must be passed; otherwise an extra session of Congress will be necessary.

"As for reorganizing the army, it is, of urse, impossible to tell to what extent ongress will go in fixing the strength of he permanent establishment. Something, wever, must be done at this session. Next July the statute which authorized the existing army expires and the regular army will then resolve itself into a band of some 27,000

Will Heed the President.

"That number, of course, is not of sofficient strength for the needs of the country, and Congress must do something to increase it. A great deal will depend upon the recommendation of the executive branch of the Government is this respect, and the strength of the army will, in my opinion, be regulated in accordance with the exact military needs of the nation.

"It is probable also that something will be done toward decreasing the amount of revenue now accruing from the war tax av. In just what form this measure will be reported from the Finance Committee and pass the Schate, I am unable to prelict. The bill must first come over from the House before such an opinion can be expressed. Congress may decide to drop everal items from the bill, so as to effect substantial decrease in the amount of revenue now derived from the act. Secretary Gage has recommended that items be abrogated, which shall decrease the total amount by $10,000,000. That recommendadon may be followed. "I am not in position to state whether the Nicaraguan Canal bill will pass during this session or not. This is a matter which may, if necessary, be postponed for action until a later date, but whether it will or not remains to be seen. I have no doubt, lowever, that the matter will be discussed. It is an easy matter to talk of such things out an entirely different one to vote upon

LONG-DISTANCE PHONE.

Northern Pacific Will Use It on All Its Lines.

St. Paul, Nov. 39,-The Northern Pacific Railway has decided to substitute the tele phone for the present telegraph system of the road, and will build and equip long-distance and divisional telephone lines to take the place of the telegraph whenever it is deemed practicable. The officials of the road believe that most of the telegraphing that is now done in connection with the business of the traffic department can be as well, if not better, performed by telephone. The plan is to place each station on a division in direct communication with the division headquarters, and the various division headquarters are to be connected with the general offices by long-distance lines. In this way much necessary information of importance to the traffic and operating departments, which, on account of the limitations of the telegraph system, must now be sent by mail, can in the future be telephoned at once. The advantage of this system is obvious. the road, and will build and equip long-dis-

Haifway down the slippery path the huntsmen began grumbling because their clothes were muddy and cold water was dripping from above down their backs. Presently the leader eagerly whispered that he saw the foxes. They all crouched and took aim at a group of brown objects in the gloom below. At a whisper from Alter the spottsmen fired. When the reverberations of their shots died away they heard only low grumbles, but the objects were undisturbed. The numbers fired a second and a thrid round, with the same result. Then they began to grow angry. When the sole torch in the party flared up they saw that their foxes were a heap of brown stones. The homees swore each other to sacrety, but the story got out, and that is why Kirkwood is laughing.

BUSINESS SITUATION IS SATISFACTORY.

Aggregate for the Month Swelled Good Reports From Iron and Steel, Tammany Reform Committee Suc. St. Louis Girl Agreed to Marry Al-Boot and Shoe, Coal and Lumber Trades.

> New York, Nov. 20.-Bradstreet's to-morrow will say; Unsettled weather and holidays are a drawback to retail and jobbing distribution in many markets, but the general situation is still a most satisfactory one, and iron and steel, coal, boot and shoe, hardware and lumber trades are conspicuously well situated. The industrial situation is also deserving of note, because of the striking absence of complaint as to idleness or as to pending or future labor troubles.

While the volume of new orders in crude material continues moderate, when compared with the enormous activity for some time past, business in iron and seed is stendler, and, as . rule, held better in hand. Advices from the West are of large business doing in pig-iron, while rails, structural material, plates and bars, are being ordered in heavy volumes. Mills turning out finshed products are generally ordered six to eight weeks ahead, and January, 1961, deliveries are being called for in some cases Whatever changes are expected are looked for in the shape of advanced prices. Southern pig fron has been sold heavily and an advance from $11.25 for No. 2 is predicted for December 1. Tin plates are re-ported selling well. Export trade in iron and steel is less attractive, owing to the lower prices abroad and active demand at home, but American railmakers this week a larger demand for goods for current con-sumption is the report from nearly all di-rections. The dry goods trade, recovering after recent liquidation, shows business ex-panding, but irregularly and slowly. Cotion goods show the best results, fine brown sheetings advancing from 6: to 6.25c. blenched shirtings from 7-4ic to 7-62c and brown sheetings from 7-4ic to 7-62c and have received flattering indorsements in the matter of price, quality and delivery from English railway authorities.

Among the textiles the situation in woolen goods and wool is, perhaps, the least encouraging of any, but even here the strength of the raw material, in face of the hand to mouth demand from manufacturers, is notable. Notwithstanding a slight decline in the price of raw entron the effect. but some noills, which usually run en ex-port trade, are diverting machinery to light-weights for home use. Railroad earnings for November to date show 1 per cent gain over 1899 and 11.1 per cent over 1898. Good news continues to come from Iron and steed sections. Sales of the come cline in the price of raw cotton, the effect for November to date show I per cent gain over 1859 and II.1 per cent over 1898.

Good news continues to come from iron and steel sections. Sales of pig from in three weeks have argregated 250,000 tons at Chicago, and idle furnaces are going into blast, indicating a much larger capacity now than on November I. Buying of all imished inalizating a fauch larger capacity now than on November 1. Buying of all indshed forms increases, and some orders are placed at slightly higher quotations. Railroads are purchasing most liberally and machinery is in special demand. As yet the advance in cotton goods is not at all in proportion to the gain in raw material. The wool market is recovering from the shock of heavy failures, and sales at the three chief Eastern markets increased about a milf million pounds for the week, but prices are somewhat easier, particularly for the cheaper grades.

Abundant estimates that the cotton yield will not reach 10,00,000 bales failed to affect prices, for traders are beginning to appreciate the fact that a decrease in consumption is an unaveltable consecution of unusually high quotations. Wheat is farther from a dollar than at any time since that price was predicted by a high authority, and the usual rumors of damage from jointing before frost fail as flat as they have done in previous years. An ample corn crop old not prevent a clever manipweaken brown goods. Blenched cottons of many grades have been advanced this weak. Sliks are rather slow of 'ale, and the recent price-reductions fall to stimulate business. Relatively, the best trade reports come from the South and Southwest, while the most backward are from sections of the Elast, where unweasonable weather is complained of, and from sections of the spring-wheat region, which suffered most from the shortage in yield. It is notable, however, that the better situation in lamber has stimulated trade in Northern Minnesota.

The feature in the grain market this week was the carrying to a successful conclusion of the November corn corner in Chicago. Following the private settlement of the shorts at a basis of 10 cents. At New York the influence of this corner-one of the few successful corn corners on recordinate to advance prices slightly, owing largely to the deflection of supplies.

Wheat has been bregular, but with the undertone bearing because of large supplies and discouraged speculative liquidation. Wheat including flour, shipments for the week aggregated 2,437,839 bushels, against 3,827,238 last week, 2,829,400 in the corresponding week of 1829, 7,482,839 in 1838 and 6,836,950 in 1837, and 3,832,154 bushels in 1836. From July 1 to date this season wheat exports are 77,797,257 bushels, against 89,167,342 last season, and 26,666,642 in 1838-250.

 Corn exports for the week aggregate 4. 801,030, against 5,235,368 bushels last week 4.441,544 in this week a year ago, 4,723,388 j. 1888, 4,585,386 bushels in 1897 and 1,708,102 j. 1896. From July 1 to date this season corn. 1896. From July 1 to date this senso exports are 74.981,591 bushels, again 618.002 last season; and 65,546,720 in 19
